Advocacy Committee Report – Laura Livermore, FLAMB President

- Primary focus is on the ‘Vote Yes’ campaign to get the upcoming levy passed.
- The group brainstormed ideas on ways to support the effort:
 - Calling – Other groups PTOs, Vote Yes, Teachers are doing calling – Lots of groups already doing. Decided to focus on supporting other groups calling efforts and getting participation in Lit Drops:
 - Molly Bonnet from Vote Yes, stopped by. She will send the volunteer form to Laura Livermore and Laura will send that out to our email list. She also encouraged all of us to just bring up the Levy and encourage parents to vote.
 - Upcoming Lit Drop Dates are:
 - October 13th Linwood –Scandia – meeting at respective elementary parking lots at 10:00 am.
 - October 27 Columbus/Lino/Wyoming,/District apartment buildings - meeting at parking lots at 10:00 am. Apartment building drops will have more info on meeting locations to come.
 - If there are groups doing calling that still need help, Laura will provide information to our list so that parents know who to contact if they are able to help with calling.

- Laura will be sending two emails – One after MEA and one right before election with stats, providing info on how to get to the polling places and other details on how to participate in the election.

Outreach Committee Report – Kelly Biedny, FLAMB Secretary

- Primary focus for now will be getting potential gigs, for the music students to perform and get the FLAHS music program visible
 - Kelly will touch-base with Holly on the list of business
 - The group will put together a letter that will be hand delivered to the businesses and a follow-up call will be made 1 week later.
 - The committee will divide the list.
 - Goal is to have a list of businesses we can work with to get gigs scheduled and then work with music students to staff
 - The list will include businesses with potential for holiday parties
 - The main focus of these gigs will be outreach, but suggested donations and tips to participating musicians will be recommended.
- Pencils/Stickers/Posters
 - Quotes for FLAMB ‘branded’ pencils, stickers and posters—quantities of 1000 each—have been acquired.
 - Items will be distributed for free.
- Apparel Pro’s
 - An online store to purchase FLAMB apparel is being set-up and announcement will be made once it’s ready.
 - Goal to encourage FLAMB music families to show support and spirit with apparel.
